 - b) *Please be mindful of the application deadlines and of the course start/withdrawal dates
- 2) Within 1 week, you should be receiving an email from UBC acknowledging receipt of your application.
- 3) The email will also contain a link to an online payment portal for you to pay the appropriate application fee.
 - a) If you do not receive this email after 1 week, please email us at teacher.ed@ubc.ca
- 4) Once your online payment is successful, your application will be further assessed.
 - a) Should we require additional information, you will be emailed with further instructions if we require additional information.
- 5) Please monitor your email, as this is the method UBC will communicate with students and applicants.

THE DIPLOMA PROGRAM, UNCLASSIFIED AND VISITOR ADMISSION APPLICATION

This form is to be used by applicants who wish to apply for admission to the Diploma program, or Unclassified or Visitor category.

We will send you an email upon processing of your application assigning a UBC reference number. We will then evaluate your application and respond by email as soon as possible. NOTE: Offers of admission or re-admission are valid only for the session indicated on the letter of acceptance.

Section A, B - PERSONAL DATA, CITIZENSHIP OR IMMIGRATION STATUS and APPLICATION FEES Complete Section A, B in full.

Citizenship or Immigration Status: Permanent residents (landed immigrants) must provide proof of status.

*Preferred name and preferred pronouns are used for advising purposes, whereas legal name will be stated on all student records. Please advise of any name changes during your program.

Application Fees: All applicants must enclose an application fee. For domestic applicants, including Canadian citizens and Permanent Residents, the fee is $69.25. For international applicants, the fee is $104.00. For applicants who have formerly applied and registered for undergraduate studies at the Vancouver Faculty of Education (NOT including the School of Human Kinetics), the fee is $39.75. These fees are non-refundable and should be made payable to The University of British Columbia by VISA, MasterCard, money order or certified cheque in Canadian funds. If paying in person, cash is also accepted. Personal cheques are not accepted. Applications will not be processed unless the appropriate application fees have been paid.

Section C - CATEGORY

Diploma: Student enrolled in studies leading to a Diploma from the Faculty of Education, UBC. Please note our Teacher Updating program is a diploma program.

Teacher Updating Diploma applicants must carefully read the important relevant details in Section E- Programs and in Section G - English language proficiency.

Unclassified: Student enrolled in studies not intended to lead to a particular degree or diploma. An unclassified student is normally one who holds a degree. Applicants taking courses towards a certificate should choose unclassified and provide their chosen specialization in Section E. Applicants who do not have a degree may qualify for admission to the restricted category of Faculty of Education Access Studies if they meet the admission requirements. This category is only available for certain designated certificate programs and applicants should choose unclassified category in Section C.

Visitor: Student in good standing enrolled in a degree program at another accredited university who wishes to take courses at the Faculty of Education, UBC, for transfer to the home university. An official Letter of Permission from the home university in addition to an official transcript is required for each session to be attended. Note: Application with a Letter of Permission from the home university does not necessarily guarantee the applicant's admission to the Faculty of Education as a visitor. The same admission requirements for the program (or prerequisites for the courses) and other criteria shall also apply. For detailed information, please contact the Teacher Education Office.

Auditor: Student registered in a credit course whose participation is limited to that deemed appropriate by the instructor but who, in general, is expected to maintain the same schedule of readings as regular students although not expected to write examinations. No credit is awarded upon course completion. Audit status will appear on the student's record. Auditors must meet admission requirements of the University and pay all applicable tuition fees.

Section D - SESSIONS

Indicate in which session you wish to enrol.

Application and Document Deadlines

Summer Session (May - August): February 28

Winter Session (September - April): May 31

NOTE: Students presenting a transcript from an institution outside North America should apply at least two months earlier than the deadlines indicated above. While we can accept applications including all supporting documentation after these dates, we cannot guarantee admission prior to start of term.

Office of Professional Development & Community Engagement (PDCE) online or off-campus courses begin September, January, and May.

Centre for Teaching, Learning and Technology (Distance Education) courses begin September, November, January, March, May and July.

Section E - PROGRAMS

Indicate to which program you are applying for admission.

Diploma: Except for designated specializations, admission to the Diploma in Education normally requires a bachelor's degree. Certain fields of specialization are open only to qualified and experienced teachers, and some have specific course prerequisites. Detailed information is available from the web (www.teach.educ.ubc.ca). Please note our Teacher Updating program is a Diploma program. Individuals who qualified for teaching certificates in BC or elsewhere but who do not hold currently valid BC certificates should first consult the Teacher Regulation Branch for a ruling concerning their eligibility for a BC certificate. Applicants to the Teacher Updating program are required to submit, along with other official documents, a copy of the letter from the Teacher Regulation Branch.

Section F - ACADEMIC HISTORY

Transcripts: Applicants are responsible for submitting official stamped transcripts in sealed envelopes, direct from all post-secondary institutions attended (photocopies and faxed copies are not acceptable).

Official transcripts become the property of the University. Irreplaceable documents will be returned upon written request. For applicants who attend UBC, these documents are kept for 5 years; for those applicants who do not attend UBC, these documents are only kept for 1 year.

Section G - ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY Applicants whose first language is not English or who have taken their post-secondary degree in a country where English is not the primary language, are required to demonstrate competence in the English language prior to admission. Tests acceptable to the Faculty of Education include TOEFL (www.toefl.org) and IELTS-Academic (www.ieltsvancouver.com).

Teacher Updating Diploma applicants must meet the English Proficiency level prescribed for admission:
<http://teach.educ.ubc.ca/admissions/teacher-updating-program/>
Official test results must be submitted directly from the testing agency. TOEFL results should be submitted by electronic tape to UBC University code: 0965, Dept: Undergraduate admissions.

Freedom of Information

Personal information provided on this application is collected pursuant to the University Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 468, and the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 165. The information will be used for the purposes of admission, registration and other decisions on your academic status at the University. Information may also be provided to University student and alumni bodies, to the professional organizations in British Columbia and may be used for research purposes. When used for research purposes individual identities will not be disclosed.
