Notes:

1. This includes French Immersion, core French, and Francophone Education. For more please see: <http://teach.educ.ubc.ca/bachelor-of-education-program/french-options/>.
2. Three of the six credits must be in literature at any level. Grammar, linguistics, creative writing, technical or business writing or communication courses will not fulfill this requirement.
3. A French immersion secondary option is available for applicants wishing to teach one or more of the following subject content areas in French: biology, chemistry, earth science, physics, history, geography, social science, and mathematics. (Note: French immersion teachers may also teach core French). In addition to meeting the French immersion Language Proficiency Requirement (see: <http://teach.educ.ubc.ca/delf-dalf/>), applicants must also meet the specific course requirements for their chosen teachable subject/s (see applicable secondary worksheets).
4. A degree in translation does not normally satisfy the admission requirements unless the above requirements are met.
5. Applicants whose first language is French and who completed a degree in a French-language university in a country or a province where French is the principal language should consult the Teacher Education Office about their French course requirements.
6. Detailed UBC course information can be found at <http://students.ubc.ca/courses>.
