Attention Instructional Leaders:
Part-time Faculty Advisor/Adjunct Teaching Professor
West Kootenay Rural Teacher Education Program (WKTEP)

The Teacher Education Office at UBC invites applications for a 12-month part-time (up to 50%) position in the West Kootenay Rural Teacher Education Program, UBC’s Teacher Education Program focused on rurality and place-consciousness. WKTEP provides teacher candidates with the opportunity to develop professional dispositions and pedagogies for teaching in today’s complex learning environments with a strong focus on community, collaboration, and innovation. WKTEP emphasizes place-conscious learning with West Kootenay communities, school districts, and schools. This is a 12-month position from August 1, 2021 to July 31, 2022, with the possibility of renewal, subject to performance appraisal, availability of funds, and operational requirements of the program. The successful applicant will be based at the UBC Nelson Learning Centre. This is not a seconded position.

The responsibilities for this position may include:

- coordinating practicum placements in rural communities around the province for 20-30 teacher candidates; such placements include arranging for faculty advisors, obtaining names of interested sponsors, collecting information on registered candidates, and working closely with faculty advisors to match up candidates at appropriate sponsor schools;
- working closely with the WKTEP academic advisor and program coordinators including attending weekly and ongoing meetings;
- finding suitable placements for students who are eligible for supplemental, deferred, and/or repeat practica;
- arranging for practicum financial support in identified cases;
- arrange Community-Based Field Experiences and link teacher candidates and community partners for the community-based field experience, EDUC 430;
- teaching course(s) in the program, based on program needs; and
- supervising teacher candidates on practicum.

Letters of application should contain: a current CV including, a cover letter (one page maximum), a summary of teaching experience, teaching evaluation if available, email addresses and phone numbers of three referees.
Deadline for applications: Tuesday, June 15, 2021
