Admission Average Calculation

A minimum average of 65% (2.5 on a 4 point scale) is required to be eligible for admission consideration.

Calculated on 18 senior level credits of Kinesiology coursework in section 3) above.

Notes:

1. Students who completed core physical education theory and/or performance analysis courses 10 or more years ago must complete at least two core theory courses at third/fourth year level and core performance analysis courses before applying.
2. Applicants normally have completed a Bachelor of Kinesiology (BKin) program. Degrees in recreation, leisure or health science/services will not satisfy requirements. Individuals possessing these degrees may have to take a considerable number of additional courses relevant to secondary PE to be considered for admission.
3. The French immersion option is not available for Physical Education.
4. Many institutions have been unable to offer performance analysis coursework during academic terms impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. Applicants without coursework in these areas will be considered, but it is highly recommended for applicants have some experience in one or more of the activity areas.
5. Students beginning their undergraduate studies in September 2021 or later should review the HOPE self-assessment worksheet, which will eventually replace the Physical Education Self-Assessment Worksheet.
6. Detailed UBC course information can be found at <http://students.ubc.ca/courses>.
7. A National Coaching Certificate (NCCP) does not fulfill any of the activity area requirements. The courses listed in this section are not in addition to coursework required above, but can be part of the courses used to meet the academic requirements as outlined in sections 2) and 3).
