

11-Month Secondary Option – CULINARY ARTS (POST-DEGREE PATH)

Name _____

Surname Given Name UBC Student Number (if available)

Post-degree path for individuals who are not currently employed in a BC secondary school.
Applicants for this option must also have a conferred Bachelor's degree.

Course Requirements (At UBC: one full year course – 6 UBC credits, one half- year course = 3 credits)	Your qualification and courses
1. Interprovincial Trades Qualification “Red Seal” (Cook) or equivalent If not Red Seal, the qualification must be approved by Ministry of Education Teacher Regulation Branch.
2. Select option A or B Option A a) Diploma in Culinary Arts (2-3 year program) b) 30 credits of arts and/or sciences (university transferrable courses) which includes the following: i) 6 credits of English literature and composition May complete two 3 credit courses in English literature OR the combination of a 3 credit course in English literature and a 3 credit course in composition. ii) 24 credits of arts and/or sciences at 1st/2nd/3rd/4th year level Option B a) Certificate in Culinary Arts (1 year program) b) 60 credits of arts and/or sciences (university transferrable courses) which includes the following: i) 6 credits of English literature and composition May complete two 3 credit courses in English literature OR the combination of a 3 credit course in English literature and a 3 credit course in composition. ii) 54 credits of arts and/or sciences at 1st/2nd/3rd/4th year level Admission Average Calculation An average of 65% (2.5 on a 4 point scale) on best 30 credits from 2.b) is required to be eligible for admission consideration.
Note: 1. Applicants are strongly advised to contact the Teacher Education Office for advising. 2. The French immersion option is not available for Chef Education. 3. Diploma or Certificate in Culinary Studies must be from a recognized accredited post-secondary institution acceptable to the Faculty of Education. 4. Applicants who have a four year degree in Culinary Arts should contact the Teacher Education Office for assessment.	